Attention All Panty Schmoozers!!!!
Date Confirmed for Panty Schmooze 2005

For Immediate Release:

Start collecting your panties and mark April 11th 2005 on your calendars. The Panty Schmooze committee is excited to announce that the event, will be taking place that evening.

The Schmooze, now in its 3rd anniversary continues efforts all year to create awareness and raise donations for women's shelters in the GTA. It is a not-for-profit networking event created by women in the music industry to focus and celebrate on the bravery of the women who want a better life for themselves and their children.

Panty Schmooze 2005 promises to be an evening of friends, amazing door prizes, schmoozing, live entertainment and fun, fun, fun!! Everyone is welcome to attend so please pass this on to your co workers, brothers, sisters and mothers!!

Committee member "We have all seen the difference that we can make when we all pull together to help out one another with the tremendous response for the relief in South Asia. Now it is time for us to bring it back home and make a difference in our own community"

Panty Schmooze 2005 will be held on the 3rd Floor of the Indian Motorcycle building on King Street in Toronto. April 11th 2005 5-7PM. Admission to the event is 5 pairs of new women's underwear or $30.00.

The committee is also excited to announce the launch of a brand new website. Please visit www.pantyschmooze.com for updated information on donation suggestions, drop off dates and locations and the event itself.
